

Centipede

Rebbie Jackson

Centipede

Centipede Your love is like a raging fire
You're a snake that's on the loose
The strike is your desire
But when the centipede is hot
You're bound to feel the fire
And when the centipede is hot
We're bound to feel the fire I feel, oh yeah, a longin' for your touch
Like you crawled into the bathroom window
To give them all your love
Like a centipede that's hot
The fire is in your touch
Just like a centipede you've got
A lot of lovin' to touch Don't you know in the quiet of the night
When the snake is in the crawlin'
And the moon starts to glow, then disappear
When the time is really right
Is when the centipede is crawlin'
You'll be crying in the night so many tears
And it's crawin' like a centipede, centipede You came to strike him with your love
Like you crawled into the bathroom window
To bite him with your love
Like a centipede that's hot
The fire is in your touch
Just like a centipede you've got
A lot of lovin' to touch Don't you know in the quiet of the night
When the snake is in the crawlin'
And the moon starts to glow, then disappear
When the time is really right
Is when the centipede is crawlin'
You'll be crying in the night so many tears
And it's crawin' like a centipede, centipede In the quiet of the night
When the snake is in the crawlin'
And the moon starts to glow, then disappear
When the time is really right
Is when the centipede is crawlin'
You'll be crying in the night so many tears
And it's crawin' like a centipede, centipede Your heart is full of strange desire
You're the heat of the summers night

A centipede on fire
When the centipede is hot
You're the one to feel the fire
Like a piece of art to strike
A centipede's on fire Don't you know in the quiet of the night
When the snake is in the crawlin'
And the moon starts to glow, then disappear
When the time is really right
Is when the centipede is crawlin'
You'll be crying in the night so many tears In the quiet of the night
When the snake is in the crawlin'
And the moon starts to glow, then disappear
When the time is really right
Is when the centipede is crawlin'
You'll be crying in the night so many tears
And it's crawlin' like a centipede, centipede, centipede, centipede
