

One Day

P.o.d.

The deeper and deeper I fall, deeper and deeper I seek Deeper and deeper I try and deeper and deeper I need
And all I see is Your face and all I see is Your face
The deeper and deeper I fall, deeper and deeper I seek
Deeper and deeper I try, the deeper and deeper I need
The deeper and deeper I fail, deeper and deeper I read
Deeper and deeper I cry, the deeper and deeper I feed
Caught up in this game of life, me against You
Not doing what I should, just the things that I want to
So wrapped up, terrified of what I become
Outside, I'm laughing, inside, I'm numb
I can't see the light because it blinds me
Try to forget but my past always reminds me
Exposed, looked on by eyes of grace
I'm so ashamed, don't look at my face
All I see is Your face, all I see is Your face
All I see is Your face, all I see is Your face
Get up by Your strength, I rise up to Thee
But I'll stay on my face, if You will of me
Shape and mold me 'til You're though
Humble myself, life laid down before You
I need Your wisdom, so the truth I keep on living
And Your love will always be a part of me
Can't do a thing, if I ain't living for the kind
So, don't ever leave or take Your eyes off me
It's not who you are, it's who you're living for Trials and tribulations will come
