Diver

Strung Out

There is a place I know through misery and stone
I'm delirious, neglected and cold
With sadness blossoms overgrownThere's a shadow in the garden
Where we sit and wait aloneThere is a grave beneath the shadows, somber with neglect
Now rises half regret
Where no prayer has been sinceThere's a shadow in the garden
Where the love and I wait
Solid as the day we left it all behindDiver, we'll rise again
Diver, we'll live again
Diver, in the cities we walk the street will open for usAnd the ruins of another time another world
Freedom's on the way, at the end of it allThere's a shadow in the garden
Where the love and I wait
Solid as the day we left it all behindDiver, we'll rise again
Diver, we'll live again
Diver, in the cities we walk the street will open for usLike a dream and darkness reaching out for you
Bone and dust enshrouded velvet me and youTo feel the sun against my back
You know I'd do it all again
You know I'd live it all again
You know I wouldn't change a thing
To walk along this place and liveYou know I'd do it all again
You know I'd do it all again
You know I'd do it all again
You know I'd do it all againI wouldn't change a single thing
Just like a dream, we'd live again
We'd live again
