Blue

Flickerstick

Watch the sailors swim, in a broken sea of glass
And soon I'll find a way to Madagascar and back, to you
So put down your guard, the best is yet to come
I'm tired of myself again, and what you have become It's true
Because love
Always turns you blue
Always turns you blue
I know
Always turns you blue
Always turns you blue
So get it out
I'm around
Tell the world
Not to drown
Your gettin' here
So when you put down your guard, your broken nails and scars

I'll be walkin on razor blades for you, for you
Get it out
I'm around
So when you put down your guard, your broken nails and scars
I'll be walkin on razor blades for you, for you
'Cause love always turns you blue
Always turns you blue
So when you put down your guard, your broken nails and scars
I'll be walkin' on razor blades for you, for you
Get it out
I'm around
Tell the world
Not to drown
It always turns you blue
It always turns you blue
