

One More Time

Bread of Stone

Before I knew Your name You mentioned mine
And You remain the same through all these times

But my ship has drifted o' so far
And the sails are torn I can't move on
Lord help me

CHORUS:

I'm sorry for the way I've been
I know it hurts
Forgive my sin
I'm sorry for the way I've treated You
I'm sorry Lord please answer me
I need to know that You still hear me
Here's my plea Lord guide me one more time

You've always kept the plans You had for me
Get me through the darkness so that I can see

But this battle rages on inside
And there's nowhere left for me to hide
Lord help me
