Cacophony

Drax

When you talk about tomorrow
I'm not sure about today
When you tell me that you love me
What am I supposed to say?
Sometimes, I don't feel
The same way as you feel
Words like 'Forever'
They scare the shit out of me
Maybe I'm afraid of commitment
Maybe you're too distracted to see that
Sometimes, I don't feel
The same way as you feel
I think of all the things that I'd say to you
If I had the chance again
I think of all the things that I'd scream
But I think it's for the best
That you and I just don't connect and
Things are never quite what they seem
Will there ever be
Someone to give her heart to me
Or would I be too blind to see it
I wouldn't make a sound
I'd keep it underground
It always seems like
I'm running, running, running
Round and round and round
Sometimes I don't feel
The same way as you feel
