

Ride The Dragon

Manowar

Demon's blood and dragon's fire
Falling on my wings
Racing to the battle in the sky
Ancient Gods are calling me
I hear them when they sing
Of all the heroes who wait for me to die Beneath the cloak of magic
I'll meet them in the air
I am invisible
I move without a sound
They look but cannot find me
They think that I'm not there
With a spell I send them crashing to the ground Wait for me, dragon
We'll meet in the sky
By fire and magic
I am sworn
Hell is calling
We cannot be denied
Fly to the blackness of the storm
We must die to be reborn I wear a sacred talisman
I make a secret sign
Now welcome me
Into this wicked wind
On the journey of a shaman
A dragon I must ride
The gates of hell are open
Let me in Rule in hell or serve in heaven
Choose an altar or throne
All Commandments and the laws of man disown
Now eat the fruit of knowledge
Unto no one ye atone
Into the fire with your soul Wait for me, dragon
We'll meet in the sky
By fire and magic
I am sworn
Hell is calling
We cannot be denied
Fly to the blackness of the storm
We must die to be reborn Demon's blood and dragon's fire
Falling on my wings

Racing to the battle in the sky
Ancient Gods are calling me
I hear them when they sing
Of all the heroes who wait for me to die Beneath the cloak of magic
I'll meet them in the air
I am invisible
They think that I'm not there
With a spell I send them crashing to the ground Wait for me, dragon
By fire and magic
I am sworn
We cannot be denied
Fly to the blackness of the storm Wait for me, dragon
By fire and magic
I am sworn
We cannot be denied
By fire and magic
I am sworn
Hell is calling
We cannot be denied
We must die to, die to
Die to be reborn
