

Don't Go Stealing My Soul Away

Accept

Yeah, if love was money
I would always pay the price
While a million dollars
Will never ever change my life It's an endless highway
The whiskey bars and one night stands
Lost in a cheap hotel
You know a woman needs a man
Can't you see it's all for you, yeah Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm giving it to you
Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm living just for you, for you
Alright So every song I sing
Comes from a lonely heart on stage
But they're still together
More than a thousand miles away
Can't you feel my love, for you Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm giving it to you
Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm living just for you, for you Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm giving it to you
Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm living just for you Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm giving it to you
Don't go stealin' my soul away
I'm living just for you Livin' just in you
