

Paper Hearts

Space Chicken

Ready, set, go
Our story starts right now
And I know I'm saving you somehow

So I will try
To touch the Sky
To reach the stars above
And I'm coming now
To save you, my love

Do you believe in magic?
'Cause I believe in the stars
And isn't it so tragic
To not tell a story like ours?
This is the chance that I must take
'Cause I don't want to break your paper heart

My approach may not be conventional
But my love is anything but two-dimensional

So I'll fight crime
And buy some time
'Till the day that I arrive

Yeah, you are the dream
That keeps me alive

Do you believe in magic?
'Cause I believe in the stars
And isn't it so tragic
To not tell a story like ours?
This is the chance that I must take
'Cause I don't want to break your paper heart
(Your paper heart)

The times are always, always changing
The stars are always rearranging for you
Nothing can stop me now
I will save you somehow
