

I Know You

Lucy Schwartz

You do this every time, so well
You leave me breathless
I know your every line, so well
But still Im helpless Watching you
Wanting you I know you
I know you so well
Why dont you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you dont see me
Anymore Theres something in your eyes
Cant tell, where Ive seen it before
Youre wearing your disguise, so well
So why have I been Watching you
Wanting you I know you
I know you so well
Why dont you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you dont see me
Anymore Oh, Oh, Oh
Oh, Oh, Oh, I know you
I know you so well
Why dont you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you dont see me I know you
I know you so well
Why dont you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you dont see me Anymore
Any more
