10 O'Clock

Gala

I know complainig doesn't help cause what has been won't be again
And as I am walking down the street
I see a child glance back at me
These crazy clocks dictate our lives I'm gonna cut time with a knife if all this ends, there's nothing more then where will my memories go?
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone
I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
never
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone
I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
never
One day you'll hear the unspoken words
I've sung for you in my silent world
I turned away you didn't know I lived for you, my love still grows
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone
I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone
I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
You see empty space in children's eyes but what you see is ancient and wise
If all this ends there's nothing more
then where will my memories go?
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone

I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone
I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone
I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
And now it's 10' o'clock
another day has gone
I know it's gone forever
have you ever loved me?
