I Ain't Superstitious

The Jeff Beck Group

Ain?t superstitious
Black cat crossed my trail
I ain?t superstitious
But a black cat crossed my trail
Bad luck ain?t got me so far
And I won?t let it stop me now
The dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood, that ain?t all
Dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood, hmm
This is a mean old world to live in
And I can?t face it all by myself, at all
And dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood
The dogs begin to bark

All over my neighborhood
I got a feelin? about the future
And it ain?t too good, I know that
I know, I know, I know, I
Ain?t superstitious
But a black cat crossed my trail
I said it so many times before
Ain?t superstitious
A black cat crossed my trail
Bad luck ain?t got me so far
And you know, I ain?t gonna let it stop me now
Come on
