

Cyberdome

Tad Morose

All alone in the cyberdome
Try to make it if you can
Dropped the bomb and headed straight for home
So you had no masterplan Roll the bones and then you ask her home
Try to shake her if you can
Walk her home but the magic's gone
There's your brilliant masterplan To the ones we left behind
I can only say I'm sorry Was it worth it all?
I don't know
Oh, I don't know
Do we care at all?
I don't know
Oh, I don't know
