Poison's In The Sugar

Jessica Andrews

His love is sweet like cotton candy
He hides the fire but not the smoke
Oh, he deceives while he enchants me
Round and round the sun I goCHORUSIf its love you want
He will deliver
A taste of honey
And then the knife
Beware the pill, for it is bitter
A villain lies behind the smile
The poisons in the sugarLike Eve drawn to the apple
Or a moth to a flame
Like an angel to a devil
If I buy what he sells
Whose to blame?CHORUSAnd he lies and he lies
And he lies
And I try and I try
But I just cant get awayCHORUSThe one in beautiful disguise
The poisons in the sugar.Can you help me?
Can you help me?
Can you help me?
I just dont knowCan you help me?
Can you help me?
Can you help me?
OhhhhhhCan you help me?
Can you help me?
