

Walkin' the Line

Tracy Byrd

Girl I swear you dang near, took my breath
The way you sashayed in this bar all by yourself
You say, you've heard about me
And all my ramblin' ways
If I could have a gal like you
I'd change today Yeah, I've been called an old tomcat
Been in and out of this and that
I hugged 'em, I kissed 'em
I loved 'em and I left 'em behind
But I'd do right by you, if you was mine
I'd spend all my time walkin' the line Ain't no doubt that you've done stole my heart
I can almost see us walkin' arm in arm
This old country boy never dreamed
He'd live to see the day
He'd be willin' to throw
His little black book away Yeah, I've been called an old tomcat
Been in and out of this and that
I hugged 'em, I kissed 'em
I loved 'em and I left 'em behind
Lord, but I'd do right by you, if you was mine
I'd spend all my time, walkin' the line, oh yeah
