

Man of God (Bloom Track)

Audio Adrenaline

Sometimes I'm a liar, sometimes I'm a fake
Sometimes I'm a hypocrite that everybody hates
Sometimes I'm a poet, sometimes I'm a preacher
Sometimes I watch life go by sitting on the bleacher But I've never been left alone
In any problem that I've known
Even though I'm to blame There were times when things were dark
And I've been known to miss the mark
But someone fixed my aim Sometimes I'm a man of God
Sometimes I'm alright
Sometimes I lay down
Close my eyes and pray to God Sometimes I don't feel good
It's hard to start the day
It's hard to climb the obstacles
That sometimes come my way If I make it, I'm a good man
Am I a bad man if I fail?
I know I'm never good enough
So I let grace prevail Oh, I've never been left alone
In any problem that I've known
Even though I'm to blame There were times when things were dark
And I've been known to miss the mark
But someone fixed my aim Sometimes I'm a man of God
Sometimes I'm alright
Sometimes I lay down
Close my eyes and pray to God
I'm ready for the night Right now I'm alright
Right now I'm alright, yeah
Sometimes I'm alright I'm alright
I'm alright
Thank God, thank God 'Cause sometimes I'm a man of God
Sometimes I'm alright, yeah
And sometimes I lay down
Close my eyes and pray to God 'Cause sometimes I'm a man of God
And sometimes I'm alright, yeah
And sometimes I lay down
Close my eyes and pray to God
I'm ready for the night
