Blood Doll

Anarchy Club

All that glitters is not sold, the true story never told, not but emptiness it hold, gives no shelter from the cold,

Come on take my hand and follow open virgin eyes to see,
promise of a dark tomorrow
staring down eternity

Take in wondering under wing Except the Gift that darkness brings Dead of night and same wind sting for all of this and everything

Come on take my hand and follow
open virgin eyes to see,
promise of a dark tomorrow
staring down eternity

Blood runs cold on stolen souls when all has been revealed no turning back , the fade to black because your fate is sealed

Come on take my hand and follow
open virgin eyes to see,
promise of a dark tomorrow

open virgin eyes to see,
promise of a dark tomorrow

We cant stop the world from turning we don't hear a word they say We cant stop the sun from burning Forever in a day
