

Unbeliever

You+Me

I've been wandering through
This dead city
With the devil's voice inside my head
And the streets they're all, they're after fortune
And the sky is painted blind dark grey But I keep hanging on
I keep hanging on
And on Now I'm a thousand miles away from nowhere
And the night is turning, it's turning bleak
Fear comes upon me now
And I feel just like some ill fated beast But I keep hanging on
I keep hanging on
And on Now I don't have
Much to offer
I thought that was plain to see
Explain I'm just an unbeliever
And I believe you can count on me If you keep (I'll keep) hanging on Just keep (I'll keep) hanging on
And on
