The Last Day

Aviette

See the outline of the frames
Of where the pictures used to be
Closets full of clothes are empty
Now this mess belongs to me
Leaving me room for all the baggage
I've been keeping locked inside
I said, I'd get over her but I lied
Yesterday she waked out of my life
She said it was the best for both of us
Other day, I was doin' fine
Yesterday was the last day of my life
Every minute I'm alone, I watch the phone
I can't believe
It's so pathetic how my imagination
Gets the best of me
Maybe I'll phone her up, won't act grown up
Then she'll hang up the line
But now I'll just have to get a life
Yesterday she walked out of my life
She said it was the best for both of us
The other day, I was doin' fine
Yesterday was the last day of my life
Yesterday she walked out of my life
The day before I was feelin' fine
Yesterday was the last day of my life
Why did I doubt her?
(Yesterday)
I'm better without her
(Yesterday)
Yesterday she walked out of my life
There she goes
She don't care, why the hell should I?
Yesterday was the best day of my life
Yesterday she walked out of my life
If she don't care, why the hell should I?
Yesterday was the best day of my
Yesterday was the best day of my life
Yesterday was the best day of my life
(Yesterday)

Yesterday was the best day of my life
(Yesterday)
(Yesterday)
Yesterday was the last day of my life
