

Breathe

CherryCase

I think with all this around me that Iâ€™ll sink, a luxury of drowning
And now know that I loved you all along
Think quick love your under pressure, find your stories that match your devices and weâ€™ll see who might just get along

-chorus-

And I, I breathe Iâ€™m falling I lye and I scream
Iâ€™m breaking you down, Iâ€™m calling you out

Youâ€™ve sewn me tight round your finger
Face first a glimpse of a memory
And now know that you lost this long ago
I breathe in and out, I move on in spite
Iâ€™m tearing these walls Iâ€™m causing these fights
You know that I know, that weâ€™re Gone

Oh there goes the floor out from beneath
Oh there goes me
