Dirty Day (Junk Day mix)

U2

I don't know you
And you don't know the half of it
I had a starring role
I was the bad guy who walked out
They said be careful where you aim
'Cause where you aim you just might hit
You can hold onto something so tight
You've already lost itDragging me down
That's not the way it used to be
You can't even remember
What I'm trying to forgetIt was a dirty day
Dirty dayYou're looking for explanations
I don't even understand
If you need someone to blame
Throw a rock in the air
You'll hit someone guiltyFrom father to son
In one life has begun
A work that's never done
Father to sonGet it right
There's no blood thicker than ink
Hear what I say
Nothing's as simple as you thinkWake up
Some things you can't get around
I'm in you
More so when they put me in the groundThese days, days, days run away like horses over the hill
These days, days, days run away like horses over the hill
These days, days, days run away like horses over the hill
These days, days, days run away like horses over the hill
These days, days, days run away like horses over the hill
These days, days, days run away like horses over the hill
