Hey You!

Jon Mesek

Hey you!
Can you tell me hows it feel?
Being ordinary, I just don't see the appeal
I'd rather live a life that normal people find surreal,
cause I'm a superstar but whatever no big deal
Hey you!
Can you tell me hows it feel?
Being ordinary, I just don't see the appeal
I'd rather live a life that normal people find surreal,
cause I'm a superstar but whatever no big deal
YO!
I'm a lyrical mastermind, one of a kind
You'll never find anybody with a better flow than mine
How y'all doin I'm just fine
You know the name, no intro needed
Rookie in the game but I'm undefeated
Y'all discrimized and mistreated
But now take a look at who succeeded
Don't know me? Your girlfriend does.
Y'all been wonderin where I was Well I've been on my grind
because I've been tryin so hard to create a buzz
But now I have
I told you don't doubt me
None of you know a single thing about me
Except for the fact that I'm big in my county
But now I take a look at the world around me
And thinkin' to myself, it's mine for the takin'
Full speed ahead, no time for breakin'
If you're thinkin' I'ma quit, you're sadly mistaken,
I do it for the love, not the money I'm makin'
Just kidding!
Haven't made a buck,
With a whole lotta skills,
and a little bit of luck
All these people lookin' at me like "Who's this punk?"
I don't know, but he spits more than Donald Duck!
Hey you!

Can you tell me hows it feel?
Being ordinary, I just don't see the appeal
I'd rather live a life that normal people find surreal,
cause I'm a superstar but whatever no big deal
Hey you!
Can you tell me hows it feel?
Being ordinary, I just don't see the appeal
I'd rather live a life that normal people find surreal,
cause I'm a superstar but whatever no big deal
YO!
I got the beat flowin' in my viens
and its tatooed in my brain restrain from my terrain while I continue to concur the game
All of you rappers are one in the same predictable average and boring and plain
I promise that you will remember my name
And I'll make a milli call me Lil Wayne
Yeah, you cant deny,
the way you feelin' inside
Man the kids got skills he'll be nationwide
In a couple of years, standin' side by side
With the best in the game, I'ma give it a ride
All the hype just keep on growin'
No turnin' back, I'm never slowin'
So why shouldn't I keep goin'?
Somebody help me, I can't stop flowin'!
Since the day I put out dreamin',
Can't go out without the girls screamin'
Hop on a plane and chill with Keenan
I'm livin' life and I'm only eighteen
So you betta cut the track and drop the beat
Jake Miller just killed it, you should tweet!
Tell the world that the kid just can't be beat
Cause I'm driven as hell, and you in the back seat!
Hey you!
Can you tell me hows it feel?
Being ordinary, I just don't see the appeal
I'd rather live a life that normal people find surreal,
cause I'm a superstar but whatever no big deal
Hey you!
Can you tell me hows it feel?
Being ordinary, I just don't see the appeal
I'd rather live a life that normal people find surreal,
cause I'm a superstar but whatever no big deal
