She Don't Know

Lit

She's on her on in the world,
Surrounded by all the people that tell her
What I've been trying to say
But I couldn't, and you wouldn't
Hear it anyway.
She's got it all figure out,
Her mind is made up
There's nothing to talk about.
If only I knew, a way to get her.
It's breaking my heart,
Watching her go. She don't know,
She don't know I'm fallin' apart
But I won't let it show.
She don't know, she don't know.
She's so much better than this,
She knows I should be the one that she's living with
Fakes another smile, and puts on her clothes.
It's breaking my heart,
Watching her go. She don't know,
She don't know I'm fallin' apart
But I won't let it show.
She don't know, she don't know.
[Guitar strings break]
Whatever you wanted, I want it too!
Whatever you needed, I need it too!
Wherever you are, I hope it's good!
I hope you're good!
It's breaking my heart,
Watching her go. She don't know,
She don't know I'm fallin' apart
But I won't let it show.
She don't know, she don't know.
It's breaking my heart,
Watching her go. She don't know,
She don't know I'm fallin' apart
But I won't let it show.
She don't know, she don't know.
