

Water Tower Town

In a water tower town, everybody waves
Church doors are the only thing that's open on Sundays
Word travels fast, wheels turn slow
Yeah workin' hard and livin' right is the only life we know
Friday night football is king, sweet tea goes good with anything
Fireflies come out when the sun goes down
Nobody eats till you say Amen, and everybody knows your mama's name
You can see who loves who from miles around, in a water tower town
Well your friends a friend, and your words your word
And our pick up trucks, they ain't for looks they're made for work
Corn grows high, crime stays low

There's little towns everywhere where everybody knows
Friday night football is king, sweet tea goes good with anything
And the girls come out, when the sun goes down
Nobody eats till you say Amen, and everybody knows your mom and them
You can see who loves who from miles around, in a water tower town
Friday night football is king, sweet tea goes good with anything
Peace and quiet makes such a beautiful sound
Nobody eats till you say Amen, and everybody knows your mom and them
You can see who loves who from miles around, in a water tower town
Yeeeahhh in a water tower town
