

You And I

Anjulie

Last night woke up in a dream
Red and white
Couldn't stop screaming
Shadows
Comin' in close to me
Yeah
But the sun's out
Stinging in my eyes
Windows open up red sky
Breath in
Smells like summer
Yeah And the stars are out
Baby it's a bad idea I know
But the stars are loud
If somebody told me there'd be
Nobody else but
You and I
The night's gettin' darker with you
You and I
My heart's getting louder with you
You and I
My mind's getting dirty with you
You, you and I, and I, and I And last week
You were with some chick
The same bed, barley sleepin'
You didn't know
That soon you'd be next to me
Yeah
In the purple sky
Head on my chest
Moonlight light up my vintage dress
Tangled up in your back seat
Yeah And the stars are out
Baby it's a bad idea I know
But the stars are loud
If somebody told me there'd be
Nobody else but
You and I (and I, and I)
The night's gettin' darker with you

You and I
My heart's getting louder with you
You and I
My mind's getting dirty with you
You and I (and I, and I)
You and I, I, you and I, I, you and I, I, you and I, I
