

Cold As Hell

Marvelous 3

She took a light saber to my heart
And she picked my brain with a pocket knife
She said, "say what's on your mind"
So I said, "I'm kinda hungry & you ain't my type" She said I was cold as hell
But hell ain't cold, I know I know
'cause I've been there for the last half hour or so
And the Devil said it never snows[CHORUS:]
I guess I can wait awhile
See if the temperature changes
I guess I can wait awhile
Try on a few more faces
For you(Oh yeah)You took me out on a shopping binge
'cause you said that I was hurting for some cooler clothes
You said, "don't you want to be all that?"
Like a Calvin Klein model in a video" She said I was cold as hell
But hell ain't cold, I know I know
'cause I've been there for the last half hour or so
And the Devil said it never snows[CHORUS X 3 (fade out)]
