

Half Awake

We Are Forever

Iâ€™d understand if you wanna run away but think before you do
I know I fucked up, Iâ€™ll be the first to say it
I donâ€™t deserve you baby
I know itâ€™s hard but we could take it easy
We could take it easy

And I donâ€™t wanna be half awake
And I could not communicate
But I just wanna be loved by you
By you
And I donâ€™t wanna be half awake
And I could not communicate
But I just wanna be loved by you
By you. You.

Iâ€™d be in trouble if it wasnâ€™t for you
Iâ€™d never know what love is
Iâ€™d be more than a fool
To ever think about being away from you. You

And I donâ€™t wanna be half awake
And I could not communicate
But I just wanna be loved by you
By you
And I donâ€™t wanna be half awake
And I could not communicate
But I just wanna be loved by you
By you. You.

And I know a place where we could fly away my dear
Moonlight will fall right in to you
Just love me like you used to

And I donâ€™t wanna be half awake
And I could not communicate
But I just wanna be loved by you
By you
And I donâ€™t wanna be half awake
And I could not communicate
But I just wanna be loved by you

By you. You.
