A Million Worlds (feat. Stacy Haden)

Halfway Deserted

Well I was thinking while we sat here waiting for the sun to show its face
My hands were shaking and I was contemplating the perfect words to say
Well I can tell you must be cold
Itâ€™s only summer but weâ€™re braving the weather
And Iâ€™m sitting here under all the stars close to you

Well it was 2am when the snow fell down
And it made me feel alright

Like love we both felt it
Safe like a helmet
Never had a night like this
Hands locked forever
Itâ€™s all felt together(?)
With you, everythingâ€™s just right

This picture means a million words
This feeling means a million worlds to me

Well I can see your hands are shaking
Itâ€™s okay, itâ€™ll go away
Youâ€™re not the only one who has their foot shoved up my..
How long have we been here?
I canâ€™t tell, I think itâ€™s been all night
If I had the powers, Iâ€™d just turn back the time (Just turn back the time)

Well it was 2am when the snow fell down
It made feel alright
It was 2am when the snow fell down tonight

You asked me what I was thinking and I said â€œI donâ€™t know baby, why donâ€™t we just sit here for a while and count the starsâ€•
I was thinking that you are the prettiest girl that I ever did see in this whole freaking world but I couldnâ€™t say cause you make me so nervous

Like love we both felt it
Safe like a helmet
Never had a night like this

Hands locked forever
Itâ€™s all felt together(?)
With you, everythingâ€™s just right

This picture means a million words
This feeling means a million worlds to me
