Daddy's Devil

Amelia Presley

The woman
She's breaking him down
She's breaking him down again
He was a man, oh
He was a man reduced to this
Coming undone
He's coming undone waiting for her kiss
He held a gun up to her head
She wore a smile and then she said,
"I'm already dead...
And soon will be you."

Chorus:
Two men have died in this house for you
Two men have died in this house for you
She placed a curse upon my father
Cancer welled up inside his body
Two men have died in this house for you

Verse 2:
You can't kill the beast, no
You can't kill the beast that she is
Walking the earth
She's walking the earth killing men
Casualties of her velvet touch
Drifting away as their daughters watch

REPEAT CHORUS

Verse 3:
Catching a friend in the bed of his wife ain't an easy thing
He pointed a gun and he fired a shot
She watched him bleed
In that very same bed, my father laid up for about a year
While two men died in the midst of scandal
She's still here
