How Do You Feel?

H-Blockx

I'm all right I feel real light
I don't live a life that's uptight
Where there's fight there's struggling
I can't walk through the world without offering questions
What's my direction
Breakin' the grip of depression
There comes a day when you let things go
There comes a time to a rock show
You know the time that you feel
That nothing else really matters
You're on the spot in the world
And you belong
That's where I am when the light's going down
I'll find a way to make some fun
I know that there is a link of energy
To someone
How do you feel
'Cause I couldn't ask for a single thing more?
How do you feel
The moment you know just what you are for?
I'm on a quest with a vision
I've got love and tradition
I wear a mask that grins and laughs

I remember what I've done
I'm a vibe under the sun
I penetrate all dimensions
I've come again, rejuvenate within
I'm future annihilation
I feel the fuel rushing through my veins
It's a burning flame
You could take on the world
It's all in your brain
How do you feel
'Cause I couldn't ask for a single thing more?
How do you feel
The moment you know just what you are for?
How do you feel
'Cause I couldn't ask for a single thing more?

How do you feel
The moment you know just what you are for?
How do you feel
'Cause I couldn't ask for a single thing more?
How do you feel
The moment you know just what you are for?
