

Never the Same

Donkeyboy

I don't want those empty thoughts to go on I don't want that empty place to be shown
Never the same, what can I do?
Never the same, yet nothing newDo you feel the sand when times goes by?
I walk away
from everything that's real,
I stay awayI try again and I am still right here,
The same old me
The fire inside,
will never dieNot the first born not the last time goes by way too fast
Never the same, what can I do?
Never the same, yet nothing newDo you feel the sand when times goes by?
I walk away
from everything that's real,
I stay awayI try again and I am still right here,
The same old me
The fire inside,
will never dieI am still right here,
The same old me
The fire inside,
will never die.
