Die Tonight

The Scams

Lose yourself, save yourself
One more night, one more time
By yourself, no one else
One arrival time to hear you cry tonight
Pray today, slide away
And hide away, no one came
Holy graves, maiden names
Take a breath and hold it in and out again
And if you die alone tonight
I'll be right by your side
My advice, alone tonight
Wait a while save a life
Take yourself, you hate yourself
Lie awake, wide awake
Bruise yourself, lose yourself
Pressure's on but not for long remind yourself
And if you die alone tonight
I'll be right by your side
My advice alone tonight
Wait a while save a life
Daylight's fading, angels waiting
Breaking all the plans we're making
Daylight's fading, angels waiting
Breaking all the plans we're making
And if you die alone tonight
I'll be right by your side
My advice alone tonight
Wait a while save a life
And if you die alone tonight
I'll be right by your side
My advice alone tonight
Wait a while save a life
