alright .Make it like poetry,pottery poetry, everything wrong you see make it alright make it like....

[verse]

Kisses of raindrops wash away the pain,each stroke is a journey on a long train to a new destination new meditation in love relization of possibilities he says to me I've given hard, mystical, tender and correct, without expactations yet all of them met ,take me around the world, but please come direct speak to me,speak to my heart[Repeat chorus]oh make it like..

To be or not to be won't be any question

Make it like ...

The slings of arrows of outrageos love are gone

Make it like...

A dream I can touch,a dream I can feel.

Make it like

Only you,only you can take me there

Make it like ...

Pottery,pottery,pottery

make it like pottery[Repeat chorus until fade]
