

Forest for the Trees

Alright Alright

Luna my love, I think I want you again
Why'm I always so sorry, why's it always the end
Cause even though we are fighting for the title to the sandbox
I am out trying to keep the outside world from crashing in It's safe below, inside your heart if you can separate the facts from
What you know, yeah what you know
Luna my love, why do I want you again
Why won't you say what you are, if you are really my friend
This is the forest for the trees
We've got to find some solidarity
Sinister Sam has got a dastardly plan
Starring (something something) as his right-hand man
I threw the knife and tore the truth away it's stranger than our fiction
That's a lie (something something)
And I would try if I believed that it would show you any different
That's a lie, yeah that's a lie
Luna my love, I ran an ocean of tears
There is a meaning inside but I am drowning in here
This is the forest for the trees
We've got to find some solidarity
Venus (something something) so I know that you won't ever hold me back
Venus (something something) and that's a wrap, so that's a wrap
Yeah, Luna my love, you took the easy way out
It's still worth saying what's the fuss about
This is the forest for the trees
We've got to find some solidarity
Well alright
Well alright
