Downstream

Overdrive Orchestra

All night lying on the floor
Just to feel the earth beneath me
Moonlight cascades on my face
Let me know that I am breathing
High tides wash away my sins
Let him know that I am here
As I lie broken on the shore
I hear him sing that golden hymnRivers flow only once you have realized
That we are all just drifting downstreamSunlight shine upon my bones
Let him know that I am waiting
Cruel jokes ease the pain with time
Lets the soul pass peacefullyRivers flow only once you have realized
That we are all just drifting downstream
