

You Better Run (2002 Remaster)

Pat Benatar

Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart?

Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart?

You go around tellin' lies

And now you want to compromise

Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart?

And you better run, you better hide

You better leave from my sight, yeah

Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul?

Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul?

Well, everything I had was yours

And now I'm closin' all the doors

Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul?

And you better run, you better hide

You better leave from my sight, yeah

I love you oh, I love you so

Can't you see it? Don't you know?

I can't stand your alibis

Your tellin' lies, you drive me wild, yeah

I said, what are ya tryin' a do to my head?

Whatcha tryin' a do to my head?

Well, now I've gotta draw the line

'Cause you ain't gonna take my mind

What are ya tryin' a do to my head?

You better run, you better hide

You better leave from my sight

You better run, you better hide

You better leave from my sight

Let me go, yeah

I said go away, and leave me alone

I can't stand you no more
