Blur

Devildriver

It's no wonder that you hang
Together can't keep myself sane
I flee in solace forever
Life's short so duck for coverWalls have ears and the ears have eyes
They're all allies against the same enemyI don't know what the future holds
If you search for gold better not sleep aloneI don't know you but I fucking hate you
And what I am saying is it's been a blur
I don't know you but I fucking hate you
And what I am saying it was all a blurIt's all about the opinion
I'm in solitary confinement
What I'm saying is
You and yours will face the judgmentWalls have ears and the ears have eyes
They're all allies against the same enemyI don't know what the future holds
If you search for gold better not sleep aloneI don't know you but I fucking hate you
And what I am saying is it's been a blur
I don't know you but I fucking hate you
And what I am saying it was all a blurSelf-loathing son of a bitch
Pick up the pace, pick up the paceObliterate the suffering now
This is a sacrifice
Burn it all away, I'll burn it all down
Separate the arroganceObliterate the suffering
This is a sacrifice
Burn it all away, I'll burn it all down
Separate the arroganceI don't know you but I fucking hate you
I fucking hate youYou're a marked man, a marked man
You're a marked man, a marked man
I don't know you, I fucking hate you
I don't know you, I fucking hate you
