Death Race

White Wizzard

Out on desert sands
The race it shall begin
To the death and locked in
Wheels start to spinThe checkered flag will fall
As death may come to all
Mechanical beasts in battle
Road warriors to the endThe engine's thrust into the night
Battle royal, the ultimate fight
Bullets and octane start to fly
Every man but one, shall dieGasoline and flames
Across the sandy plains
Rockets start to fly
In the desert sky
Exploding overload
On the crimson killing road
Tonight there are no rules
In the final bloody duelA race to the death
For the power and the glory, oh, oh, ohRoad villains in black
Charging the attack
Steel beasts enraged
There's no turning backBlades slice into skulls
The armored saint shall fall
Swinging chains and swords
A deadly free for allThe engine's thrust into the night
Battle royal, the ultimate fight
Bullets and octane start to fly
Every man but one, shall dieGasoline and flames
Across the sandy plains
Rockets start to fly
In the desert sky
Exploding overload
On the crimson killing road
Tonight there are no rules
In the final bloody duelA race to the death
For the power and the glory, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, ooohh
