Lone Ranger

Nate Sallie

I don't ever wanna be alone again
Now that I have found a love that never ends
Everything you are is all I hope to be, yeahI used to walk around and be the lone ranger
Never needed love from a stranger
Always walked away from the danger
Of losing a friend, yesAnd then I stumbled in to You in my senses
I needed You to melt my defenses
You're the sum of all I've been missing for so long
Let me say to YouI don't ever wanna be alone again
Now that I have found a love that never ends
Everything you are is all I hope to be
'Cause You're the best thing that's happened to meAnd You know that I'll go
Anywhere you take my hand
And I don't ever wanna be alone again
I don't wanna be 'lone again
Don't wanna be 'lone againYou never ever meant for me to fly so low [Incomprehensible] for who knows
Never knew it lead me so high 'lone
Till You fill me in, yeahThen I broke down the preconceived notion
The letting go would be my demotion
You're the muse of all my devotion all the time
Now that I, I see my light, let me say to YouI don't ever wanna be alone again
Now that I have found a love that never ends
Everything you are is all I hope to be
'Cause You're the best thing that's happened to meAnd You know that I'll go
Anywhere you take my hand
And I don't ever wanna be alone againIt took me falling to the ground
To understand I could be foundI came to You in broken condition
I didn't even need an audition
You're the sum of all I've been missing for so longAnd I don't ever wanna go there again
And I don't ever wanna be alone again, no, no, no
'Cause You're the best thing that's happened to meAnd You know that I'll go
Anywhere you take my hand
And I don't ever wanna be alone again, noDon't ever wanna be alone
Don't ever wanna be alone'Cause You know that I'll go
Anywhere you take my hand
And I don't ever wanna be alone again
Don't wanna be 'lone again, alone
Don't wanna be 'lone again
