Worry

Blanca

Sometimes my mind is my own worst enemy
Sometimes my eyes trust only what they see
But have You ever run out of faithfulness
Have I ever needed more and gotten less
No, You always come through so

I wonâ€™t worry
What tomorrow brings
Your loveâ€™s got a hold on me
And You wonâ€™t let go
Through the highs and the lows I wonâ€™t
Worry
What may come my way
â€˜Cause I believe every word You say
I never have to be afraid
â€˜Cause You got me
I wonâ€™t worry

Take all my fears, and my anxiety
I know Youâ€™re here, and You know just what I need I'll never run out of Your promises
I've never needed more and gotten less
No, You always come through so

My heart, my mind, all of my life
You know the real me
Take all control
With You I know
I donâ€™t have worry
The birds of the air are flying high Donâ€™t have a care so why should I
Youâ€™re always by my side

I wonâ€™t worry
What tomorrow brings
You got a hold on me
So, I wonâ€™t worry what may come way
â€˜Cause I believe every word You say
I never have to be afraid
â€˜Cause You got me

I wonâ€™t worry, I wonâ€™t worry
I wonâ€™t
