

Alice What's The Matter

Terrorvision

Something about you really puts me down
You're the life of the party, you're the toast of the town
Something about you really picks me up
Like a hot cup of coffee in a hot coffee cup
Feels like a Saturday, free and easy going
Reminded it's a Sunday to stop the flow from flowing
You can see clearly now the rain has gone
But it looks like someone's gone and dropped the bomb
Alice, what's the matter? Alice, what's the matter?
Alice, what's the matter? Alice, what's the matter?
Something about her she reminds me of you
Something about him, he could be me too
Something about them, something about the other
Something I've got to tell you about my dad and your mother
Feels like a Saturday, free and easy going
Reminded it's a Sunday to stop the flow from flowing
You can see clearly now the rain has gone
But it looks like someone's gone and dropped the bomb
Alice, what's the matter? Alice, what's the matter?
Alice, what's the matter? Alice, what's the matter?
Alice, what's the matter? Alice, what's the matter?
Alice, what's the matter? Alice, what's the matter?
Something about black, something about white
Something about wrong, something about right
Something about us, something about them
Something about Bill, definitely something about Ben
Something about you, something about me
Something about A, B, C, D and E
Something about hell, something about heaven
Something about 4, 5, 6 and 7
Alice, what's the matter?
Alice, what's the matter?
Alice, what's the matter?
Alice, what's the matter?
