

Moving Shadows

Alise Joste

I am loosing my mind over you and I'm so sorry but soon I'll have to go 'cause I won't shine the way you want me to shine I'm gray, I'm pale and nothing more I'll rip my heart out of my chest I'll spit it out and try to forget and I'll keep my hands away and pretend as if I had nothing left to say
