

Second Sight

Placebo

Walk away to save your face
You never were a genius
Walk away to save your face
You let it come between us Walk away to save your face
You never were a genius
Walk away to save your face
You never were, you never were Yes, it's just second night
But I would bring back knives for you
Yes, I know you're the jealous type
'Cause I'm cursed with second sight so Walk away to save your face
You never were an actor
Walk away to save your face
Here comes the mornin' after Walk away to save your face
You never were an actor
Walk away to save your face
You never were, you never were Yes, it's just the second night
But I would bring back knives for you
Yes I know you're the jealous type
'Cause I'm cursed with second sight so
'Cause I'm cursed with second sight so
'Cause I'm cursed with second sight so (Third verse same as the first) Walk away to save your face
You never were genius
Walk away to save your face
You let it come between us Walk away to save your face
You never were a genius
Walk away to save your face
You never were, you never were Yes, it's just the second night
But I would bring back knives for you
Yes, I know you're the jealous type
'Cause I'm cursed with second sight so Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
(You never were)
Walk away
(You never were)
Walk away
(You never were)

Walk away
(You never were)
