Beating Heart (LP Version)

Leslie Phillips

How long have I got
To common days become legend?
And how long have I got
'Til this dream of life becomes heaven?Oh, life passed too fast
It's hard to know it won't last foreverHow long have I got Before passion gives up its fire?
And how long have I got
Before time strangles desire?Oh, oh, my fear is to leave here
Never having really arrivedWho can hear my beating heart
Pounding so, wanting more?
Who can hear my beating heart
Pounding on the door?How long have I got
To make mistakes and be wiser?
And how long have I got
To learn to be less of a liar?Oh, to face my best try I know
I need someone who is higherWho can hear my beating heart
Pounding so, wanting more?
Who can hear my beating heart
Pounding on the door?How long have I got
To answer a higher calling?
And how long have I got
To walk the line without falling?Oh, needing meaning, wanting to know
Just what I'm here forWho can hear my beating heart
Pounding so, wanting more?
Who can hear my beating heart
Pounding on the door?

Songwriters
Phillips Leslie APublished by WORD MUSIC, LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/