

The Way (radio Song)

Dana Glover

Well I guess it's just the way it's got to be
I can't expect the whole world to stop turning just to listen to me
Besides everybody thinks that they're the one that's got something to say
It's the way it's been it's always been the way
It's a really fine feeling what I'm feeling on the radio
Cause I can hear the words but I just can't feel the soul
Said the tides are turning but nothing ever seems to change
When I turn the dial the groove still feels the same
Yeah, yeah yeah

Well I guess it's just the way it's got to be
Whose to say I'm the only one living in reality
But there's a melody I'm singing keeps me feeling like I'm never alone
I'll just sit right here and sing all the way home
Is anybody feeling what I'm feeling on the radio
Cause I can hear the words but I just can't feel the soul
Said the tides are turning but nothing ever seems to change
When I turn the dial the groove still feels the same

Well I guess it's just the way, that things will have to be, yeah
Well what if I could just live in that wonderland
Where Stevie touches my heart with his hands
And Aretha sings about a do right man all night long just for me
That'd be the way that it would be

My my my my my my...
Is anybody feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling on the radio
Is anybody feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling on the radio
Is there a James Brown, or an Al Green, or an anybody who knows what I mean
Oh my my, whoo whoo
Chaka Kahn, I feel for you

Is anybody feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling on the radio
Is anybody feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling what I'm feeling on the radio
My my my my my my...
