

Laura

Flogging Molly

This next song is about
A young lady called Laura
Who unfortunately isn't with us anymore
But she's still called Laura

Here we go
Feel the words from my lips
To your harsh finger tips
Then you know where I come from
'Cause I know, yes I know
Everything there is to know
'Cause I lost everything I had
See, I Could have danced on the sun
But my world came undone

(Laura)

Laura
There's no need for tears
Cause there's no need to cry
The love that you leave
Will never be left behind
The pain in my head comes
Straight from the heart
No one alive can touch who you are
So bow down, Laura

'Cause no one could take your place
Bye bye, Laura
Your beauty will never fade
The seed has been sewn
And after this song, her spirit lives on
Though your not around you'll never be gone
So bow down, Laura

'Cause no one can take your place
Bow down, Laura
Your beauty will never fade
And I could have danced on the sun
But my world came undone, Laura
Well, I, I could have danced on the sun
But my world came undone
Bye Bye Laura

So bow down, Laura
'Cause no one could take your place
Your beauty will never fade
So bow down, Laura
'Cause no one can take your place
Bye Bye, Laura
Yeah
