Shine by Damien Horne

Rain

Itâ€™s just one of those things, some days you got it.
But Hate oh oh oh hate, is only here because somebody taught it.
How can you learn the lesson of love, if you choose to hide in the dark.

Shine, so everybody can shine too.
Open your heart and lead the way, you donâ€™t have to be afraid, itâ€™s in you.
To rise high above your greatest fears.
With just a little bit of light you can make it brighter here. Ohâ€
Everybody shineâ€ Shine on shine on. Everybody shine, shine on shine on. Everybody Shine.
Oh oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh oh.

Grace

We could use a little grace, sisters and brothers.
Shame, oh what a shame, that we do not give in to one another.
So how can we learn the lessons of love, if we choose to hide in the dark.

Shine, so everybody can shine too.
Open your heart and lead the way, you donâ€™t have to be afraid, itâ€™s in you. You.
To rise high above your greatest fears.
With just a little bit of light you can make it brighter here. Ohâ€
Everybody shineâ€ Shine on shine on. Everybody shine, shine on shine on. Everybody Shine.
Mmmâ€ mmmmmm.

So how can we learn the lesson of love if we choose to hide in the dark.
Shine, so everybody can shine too.
Open your heart and lead the way, you donâ€™t have to be afraid, itâ€™s in you. Itâ€™s in you.
To rise high above your greatest fears.
With just a little bit of light you can make it brighter here. Ohâ€
So everybody shineâ€ Shine on shine on. Everybody shine, shine on shine on. Everybody Shine.
Shine on, shine on. Everybody Shine, shine on shine on. Everybody shine.
