

What Is It Gonna Be

Mario

Baby, baby
I think Chris might have said it best
When he said the beautiful ones they hurt you every time
She's the reason for all my stress
And yet she's the only one that can truly ease my mind
If I think that we could be alright
With the way that we just chill
How she touch me and how she kiss yeah
If it wasn't for her other guys
I can't stand to think that he's getting the same loving that I get
So tell me what is it gonna be?
Make the decision, there's just one rule
Tell him that you want me
I know what I want, girl, I want you
What is it gonna be?
I can't get enough, make your mind up
Let me know what you want not complaining, okay
I am wanna be your man but he's in the way
So I can't understand
And I think that we could be alright
With the way that we just chill
How she touch me and how she kiss me
If it wasn't for her other guys
I can't stand to think that he's getting the same loving that I get
So tell me what is it gonna be?
Make the decision, there's just one rule
Tell him that you want me
I know what I want, girl, I want you
What is it gonna be?
And it's hard to see you happy
It's probably 'cause you just left and that's so unfair to me, baby
Only if you could get rid of him we could be happy
Baby, let me know
What's it going to be?
Make the decision, there's just one rule
Tell him that you want me
I know what I want, girl, I want you
What is it gonna be?
Baby, baby, baby
