

Chase The Fire

The Fixx

You chase the fire
You paint the signs
I walk the wire
You shout lines There was a time when my mind
Was made up by you
Is this a deja vu
Am I just missing you? I've been here before and lived
To the thrill of it all
I might be in the dark
But I'm watching you You, you chase the fire
But you can't take the heat
You, you slay the lion
And you won't taste the meat Your look was all it took
To get me hooked on you
My eyes were closed
Now I'm watching you You, you chase the fire
But you can't take the heat
You, you slay the lion
And you won't taste the meat
I've been here before and we chased So you chase the fire
You paint the signs
I walk the wire
You shout lines There was a time when my lines
Were made up by you
Is this a deja vu?
Am I just seeing through You, you chase the fire
But you can't take the heat
You, you slay the lion
And you won't taste the meat, oh no
I've been here before and lived [incomprehensible] And you, you chase the fire
You chase the fire You chase the fire
You paint the signs
I walk the wire You chase the fire
You paint the signs
I walk the wire Don't tell me you, you're gonna chase the fire
I've to see that you, when you touch the fire
They say that you, witches don't burn
And you won't take the heat
