Coming Down

Marching Church

Cramped into a few square meters
Belongings scattered everywhere
Dwelling in and turning over every memory
Of warm countries, way south
Of ventures into dense, wild and overgrown land
And times when living seemed so much more aliveAnd I feel I'm coming down
Down below
Cause I feel I'm coming down
Down belowThere is company
There is company there
But he's not sure if it's them he's talking to
Or the blank space hovering in front of himAnd I feel I'm coming down
Down below
Yes, I feel I'm coming down
Down below
